- (1) The Customer/Buyer shall not sell, export or re-export, directly or indirectly, to the Russian Federation, to Belarus, or for use in the Russian Federation or in Belarus any goods supplied under or in connection with this Agreement that fall under the scope of Article 12g of Council Regulation (EU) No 833/2014, or of Article 8g of Council Regulation (EU) No 765/2006, respectively.
- (2) The Customer/Buyer shall undertake its best efforts to ensure that the purpose of paragraph (1) is not thwarted by any third parties further down the commercial chain, including by possible resellers.
- (3) Any violation of paragraph (1) or (2) shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. This entitles us to seek appropriate remedies, including, but not limited to, to terminate this Agreement. If we have grounds for reasonable doubts about compliance with the obligation, we have the right to suspend the Agreement without consequences until the Customer/Buyer is able to disprove the doubts.
- (4) The Customer/Buyer shall immediately inform us about any problems in applying paragraph (1) or (2) and provide us with all relevant information thereof without undue delay.
- (5) EU Council Regulations No. 833/2014 and No. 765/2006 contain transitbans for various goods and technologies through the territory of Russia or Belarus that are exported from the Union. For products, which are subject to these transit bans, you must ensure that they are not transited through the territory of Russia or Belarus.
